Wizard's Carnival.

The Wizard's Carnival in Salt Lake City is now in full swing and is proving to be "the big time in the big city." The magnificent pageant parade of Tuesday evening will be repeated in complete representation and detail upon Friday evening. The Wizard's Roundup at the state fair grounds is drawing thousands of people daily and sending them away exhausted by the heart-thrills and high tension interest which it furnishes all spectators. The city is crowded with visitors, thousands of whom came upon the first day and simply cannot leave until the last wink of the carnival Saturday night has drawn the curtain across the greatest spectacular celebration ever produced in the West.
